Terra Community College's ElderCollege Spring Session Schedule Announced

The spring session of Terra Community College's ElderCollege offers learning expeditions as well as classes in everything from computers to musicals.

ElderCollege is a membership organization at Terra for adults age 50 and beyond who share a common desire to learn. The course schedule varies from term to term but usually includes such topics as computers, history, art and music. There are also several educational outing opportunities.

Here is the spring schedule:

Learning Expeditions

- Eagle Watch – 9 a.m. to noon, April 6. Register with the Sandusky County Park District at 419-334-4495. Class size is limited to 12. Cost: Donation to ElderCollege general fund is encouraged.
- Bad Astronomy: Myths and Misconceptions – 10 a.m. April 28. You will travel to the BGSU Planetarium on your own to see the show and ask questions of the staff. Cost: $20 members/$25 non-members.
- Architectural Treasures of Toledo – 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. April 15. This travel-on-your-own trip will include visits to the First Congregational Church, Holy Rosary Cathedral, the main Toledo Public Library, and a three-course lunch at the Café in the Park. Cost: $25 members, $30 non-members.
- City of Bowling Green's Wind Farm – 1 p.m. You will travel to the wind farm on your own. It is located on West US 6 next to the Wood County Landfill. Cost: $5 members, $10 non-members.
- Wright Patterson AFB Museum – May 13. This is your opportunity to view more than 360 aircraft on static display with all but 20 indoors. Cost, which includes motor coach and IMAC admission: $90 members, $110 non-members.
- Tour of Plum Brook – 1 p.m. May 22. The group will visit our closest NASA Center, the Plum Brook Station in Sandusky. Cost: $20 members, $25 non-members.

- Bird Watching-Up Close and Personal – 9 to 11 a.m. May 28. Bring your folding chair, camera and field guide to Navarre Marsh for an up-close view of birds that fly through Northwest Ohio on their way north each spring. Cost: $10 members, $15 non-members.

Day Classes

- American Red Cross Family Caregiver Course – 6 to 8 p.m. Mondays from April 6-27.
