

Policy Statement

Terra State Community College (TSCC) has established the following policy to govern the creation, registration, and operation of student organizations for the benefit of all students in the college community. Recognized student organizations are the bridge for co-curricular activities in the college. This should provide an opportunity for personal development and enjoyment for members and the broader college community.

Policy Details

1. All student organizations must abide by all federal, state, and local laws as well as college regulations.
2. No organization with restrictive membership clauses discriminating on the basis of race, creed, ethnic identity, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, or disability, as defined by law, shall obtain or maintain registration status.
3. All student organizations must document through a constitution and/or bylaws, the name of the organization, the organizations purpose, membership criteria, meeting procedures, and role/function or electing officers, duties of officers, and role/function of the organizations advisor.
4. Only current registered students may hold office and solicit funds on campus on behalf of a registered student organization.
5. Other persons may be admitted to non-voting membership if the organization's constitution permits.
6. A minimum of five (5) currently registered student members shall be required as a condition of registration. Certain organizations may seek exemption from this requirement through a formal request to the Senior Vice President for Innovation and Strategic Planning.
7. The purpose(s) of a student organization must not conflict with the mission or established policies of the college.
8. No student organization may use the name of any other student organization for any purpose.
9. Student organizations must have faculty and/or staff advisors and provide for such advisors in the organizations constitution and/or bylaws.
10. Advisors must be full or part-time faculty, staff, or administrators.
11. Additionally, organizations may use community members as co-advisors.
12. No registered student organization may expend any of its funds for any political purpose or in the support of any political candidates or issues whether federal, state, local, or college level.
13. Registration of a student organization does not constitute endorsement, approval, or ratification by the college of any doctrine, act, or omission by the student organization.

Procedures

1. Procedures for Registering a Student Organization

- a. Students desiring to create a student organization should meet with the Dean of Student Success to review the process to gaining recognized status, including an application packet with required forms and sample constitution/bylaws.
- b. An organization is required to produce evidence, by submitting a roster, that membership consist of a minimum of five (5) currently registered students at the time registration is sought and in order that registration be maintained.
- c. One (1) typed copy of the proposed constitution and/or bylaws and a list of officers are to be submitted to the Dean of Student Success.
- d. If there are no major corrections needed, the constitution is forwarded to Student Government for consideration. Registration is considered final after approval by Student Government.

- e. The approved constitution is kept on file in the Senior Vice President for Innovation and Strategic Planning's Office. A copy is to be kept on file with the Dean of Student Success.
- f. Inactive organizations with no change in constitutions may petition Student Government for reinstatement. Any changes in a constitution and/or bylaws must be approved by Student Government.
- g. Objection to registered status for any student organization may be filed with the Senior Vice President for Innovation and Strategic Planning.
- h. Appeal of a decision against registration of a student organization may be made by that organization to the Senior Vice President for Innovation and Strategic Planning.

2. Privileges of Registered Student Organizations

Registered student organizations are afforded the following privileges:

- a. Use of the name of the College and its titles. Use of the College's symbols and logo must conform to College policy.
- b. Use of College facilities subject to the established written policies and procedures governing such use.
- c. Petition for the use of College funds by submitting requests to the appropriate College officials.
- d. Petition for the use of student organizations funds by submitting requests to and receiving approval from Student Government.
- e. Services of The Office of the Senior Vice President for Innovation and Strategic Planning, including consultation and assignment of a mailbox.
- f. The opportunity to use College facilities for fund-raising activities. Those student organizations registered by the College must deposit all proceeds from such activities into their College accounts. Organizations not complying with those requirements will not be permitted to use College facilities for fund-raising activities.
