One last "thanks" to Brian Horn for all that he has done to beautify the campus during the past 31 years. We will miss you! Enjoy retirement.

Facebook happenings

Every week we are having a “Saturday Challenge” on our Facebook page.

November’s winners received $25 Kroger gift cards. Here are the two that weren’t in the November issue.

Kelsie Marie Sturdavant, right, won a gift card for her Mom

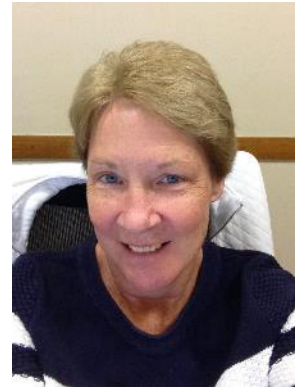

Sammy Jay also won a Kroger gift card

There will be two more Saturday Challenges in December. The prize this month is a $10 gift card to Coco Bean Candy in downtown Fremont. Make sure you check in with the Terra State Facebook page each Saturday morning!

Thanks, and farewell

I would like to take this opportunity to say farewell to all of the Terra State students who faithfully read The Paw Print each month. As of Jan. 1, 2017, I will be leaving Terra State.

It has been my pleasure for 17 years to bring you all of the campus news in this monthly publication.

When I started, and for several years after, we printed the newsletter and placed copies all over campus. But as the digital age dawned, we went to a totally electronic version. And that’s where we are today.

I’ve tried to keep you informed of events, inspire you with student and faculty successes, and keep you up to date on important deadlines.

While I’m not certain how The Paw Print might change in the future, I am sure that there will still be a communication channel between the College and its students.

Thanks to everyone who has helped provide information to me for all these years. I couldn’t have done it without all of you.

If I could leave you with one thought, it’s this:

“The journey is the reward.”
- Chinese proverb

News from the music department

The NORFA/Terra Community Flute Choir will wrap up its fall semester by performing for a private party at the Culinary Vegetable Institute in Milan on Dec. 10.

This flute choir is conducted by flutist, Elizabeth Studer, and boasts of the beautiful sounds of bass, alto, piccolo and C flutes. After Christmas break, the flute choir will be able to welcome new flute players. There is no audition necessary, but experience at the high school level is helpful. All music is provided, and the specialty flutes are shared, for a complete flute music making experience.

For more information on joining the Flute Choir, email Manager, Tamara Kagy, Instructor of Flute and Humanities, here at Terra State at tkagy@terra.edu.

Terra State non-credit fitness classes discount

Did you know that Terra State students get 50 percent off all non-credit fitness classes here? The schedule will be out soon and can be found at <http://www.terra.edu/Lifelonglearning.html> by winter break. Check it out in mid-December. Classes will start the second week of January.

Terra State Kids Club Saturdays

Let us help you beat cabin fever. Have fun getting out of the house for two hours and leave us to clean up the mess!

Bring your kids to Terra State for a morning to let out all of that energy by utilizing our gym, equipment and games. This is a family event, so adults are required to stay and keep an eye on their child while they play. Some days will have themes while others will just be a day to just let their imaginations run wild. Healthy snack demonstrations will be available provided by the Ohio State University Extension Office and there will be raffles for Terra State merchandise for participating kids.

No registration required, families pay at the door.

Saturdays – February 4, March 4 and 25 and April 1

Time: 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Location: Building C (Student Activities Center)

Cost: $5/ family per session

Winter Wonderland

This is a special edition of “Terra State Kids Club Saturdays” where we will have dancing, photo booth, snacks, winter themed activities (including a special guest!), cookie decorating, raffles, face painting and more. Feel free to dress up in your winter best or come in casual clothes.

Please RSVP for this event so we can ensure we have enough snacks, payments will be accepted at the door.

Saturday February 18

Time: 2 to 4 p.m.

Location: Building C (Student Activities Center)

Cost: $5/ family
