Library news

Looking for a space on campus to meet with team members to complete a group project?

Head to the library and ask about the availability of our new collaboration space for students! The room offers a large wall-mounted monitor connected to a computer that can switch between Windows and Mac operating systems, a wireless keyboard and mouse, and tables and chairs to accommodate one or two groups of up to ten people total. The tables and chairs are easy to move so that groups may rearrange the furniture to meet their specific needs when working on presentations, papers, group research, and other class projects. The purchase of new equipment for this space was made possible by the generosity of the Terra College Foundation.

Note from the Terra College Foundation

Attention all students who received a Terra College Foundation scholarship. Please “Save the Date” for the 2016 Partners in Education Banquet, Thursday, Nov. 10. This is an opportunity for Terra State’s generous donors and Terra State’s students to meet and celebrate our successes.

Mark your calendars today! You will be receiving additional information later.

Also, remember, thank you letters to scholarship donors are due to the Financial Aid Office by Sept. 30.

Facebook happenings

Every week we are having a “Saturday Challenge” on our Facebook page. In honor of National Chicken Month, September’s contests were chicken-themed. The first winners were Cyndi Hayes and Brandon Hayes for their chicken video. Their photo appeared in the last Paw Print.

Each received a $10 gift card from Lee’s Famous Recipe.

So far in October, National Cookie Month, we have given away three $10 gift certificates to The Cookie Lady.

Amanda Shammo was our first winner

Shauna Daily, right, was our second and Haley Foes, left, was our third.

Two more Cookie Lady prizes remain this month, so make sure you enter on Oct. 22 and 29 on Facebook!

There are lots of other great prizes up for grabs each Saturday the rest of the semester. Make sure you check it out each week.

A big “Thank YOU” goes to the Office of Student Activities for supplying all of the prizes!
